Factor In Dispute.
Great Britain's alliance with Japan, it is believed, already has been a factor in the dispute over the removal of alien land laws. The increasing friendship of the United States and Great Britain, it is admitted, would render difficult for Japan to expect support from her ally in controversies with the United States. There is said to be good reason to believe, too, that the settlement of the tolls question, by the granting of equal payment by all nations, will find favor at Tokyo, where an exemption in favor of American coastwise shipping was regarded as a serious blow to prospective Japanese trade.

Remains at White House to Catch Up With His Work.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, March 8.—President Wilson missed church to-day, disappointing many sightseers who had gathered to catch a glimpse of him. I was explained at the White House that he had to catch up with his work, his trip to Philadelphia yesterday, to see his oculist having put him behind.

Mrs. Wilson, who has not fully recovered from the shock of a fall last week, also remained at home.

After the ceremony here to-morrow, the body will be sent to the Vanderbilt home at Newport, Staten Island, N. Y., for burial. To-night, are the Spanish ambassador, the Italian ambassador, the French ambassador, the American ambassador, the American minister to London, Leonard Wood, chief of the United States Army; Charles D. Walcott, secretary of the Smithsonian Institution; Herbert Putnam, librarian of Congress; Gifford Pinchot, Overton Price, Henry D. Paul, and others. Funeral services will be conducted here to-morrow in the Bethlehem Episcopal church, at 11 o'clock, and at St. Paul by the Rev. Rush Rodney, D. D., pastor of All Saints' Church, at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Rodney is of North Carolina. Services will be simple, and only close friends of the family and relatives will attend.

Broad Street is one of the most spacious and beautiful avenues in the whole world.

It bears the stamp of real worth.

It's a highway of which the people of Richmond are justly proud.

It advertises the city.

In the same way The Times-Dispatch advertises Richmond, the State of Virginia and this section of the country.

It, too, bears the stamp of real worth.

It stands for the welfare of the people, for progress and prosperity.

OVATION FOR HERO

Whistles Scream When Captain Infrings in New Command.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, Sept. 2.—Captain Francis Ingh, hero of the disaster to the Albatross, was welcomed to his new command at sea last fall, arrived to-day in command of the new steamship Turner from Genoa. Of thirty-one Albatross officers, many vessels and tugs let loose their whistles in greeting to Captain Ingh, and the Turner was greeted by the Albatross because of bravery shown when the Volcano burned.
